Park City Society

Special to The Tribune. PARK CITY, June 23.—Miss Edith Coombs was the guest of honor at a very pleasant party given by the members of the Methodist church choir Friday evening at the Methodist parsonage. Games and music were indulged in and a very delightful time had by all those present. A tempting luncheon was served later to the guests, who were Messrs. and Mesdames Robinson, Martin Thomas, Joseph Kemp, Mesdames Lindsay, E. McLelland of Boise, Monroe of California, Misses Bessie Barnicot, Pearl Crother, Edith Coombs, May Hedges, Laura Townsend, Edith Morgan, Mabel Kemp, Bessie Thomas, Ethel Giddy of Boise, Mesars. David Baxter, Trethewey, Jack Frump, Joe Kemp, Jr. Saturday evening the alumni of the Park City high school entertained the class of '06 at a very elaborate banquet. The cozy Sutton banquet hall was very prettily decorated with the high school colors, crimson and white. The long table was arranged in the form of a large T. This was prettily arranged with red and white carnations. Miss Claire Stevenson, president of the alumni, gave an excellent address, in which she welcomed heartily the class of '06. Miss Frieda Funk was toastmistress and the following toasts were given and responded to: "Class of '06," Miss Mae Williams; "Class of '05," Mrs. Florence Peterson; "Class of '04," Mrs. Arnold Smith; "Class of '03," Miss Laura Townsend. A great deal of merriment was created by the antics of the new members during their initiation. Those who were present were Misses Claire Stevenson and Mae Williams; '02, Mrs. Florence Peterson; '03, Leo Dunkin; '03, Misses Frieda Funk and Ella Snyder; '04, Jerry Harrington; '05, Miss Pearl Snyder; '05, Mesars. Arnold Smith and Charles Carpenter; '05, Misses Nellie Jennings, Helen Deason, Laura Townsend, Mesars. Emmet Wright, Robert Watson, Robert Jennings, all '06. Mrs. D. Quincy Graybill, assisted by her class, gave a very entertaining affair in the shape of a cob web social at her home on Tuesday afternoon. The side and back lawn presented a pretty appearance with their bewildering number of bright-colored webs. Little Misses Mary Townsend and Lillie Hendrickson served cake and lemonade from a gayly decorated booth. About seventy-five people attended during the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Julius Frankel entertained at a very pleasant, though informal, dinner Thursday evening. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. J. M. Cross, Miss Nina Cross, Mr. Rosenberg. The 500 Card club met Wednesday afternoon at the cozy home of Mrs. P. Towey. Several tables were filled and prizes awarded to Mrs. Lynn Kimball, first; Mrs. W. J. Buck, second; Mrs. J. M. Cross and Miss Nina Cross were the guests of the club. Mrs. J. Frankel will entertain the club next Wednesday. The meeting will be held one week earlier, owing to the Fourth of July celebration. Wednesday evening the Ladies' society of the Congregational church gave a delightful strawberry social. A pleasing musical and literary programme was rendered. A neat sum was realized by the society. Mrs. C. F. Golt was hostess at a very elaborate Kensington Saturday afternoon. A dainty luncheon was served to the following ladies: Mesdames M. F. Allen, W. J. Buck, E. J. Beggs, H. W. Culbertson, B. Cripps, J. Dunn, B. Deason, J. Frankel, L. D. Gray, D. G. Graybill, G. W. Gulliver, F.

W. Hoyt, L. E. Hubbard, G. E. Hedges, J. LaFavor, E. P. LeCompte, A. A. Pike, R. D. Robbins, P. W. Sherman, W. D. Sutton, F. W. Smith, P. H. Towey, J. Thompson, H. Welsh, J. Welsh, C. M. Wilson, E. K. Ward, L. B. Wright, R. E. Wright, C. E. Whitehead, James Waters, V. Youngberg, W. M. Ferry, Miss Bardasley. One of the happiest affairs of the season was the silver jubilee of Rev. Father Galligan Thursday. High mass was celebrated in the morning and the ceremony was most impressive. A large reception was held at the parochial residence from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. The home was beautifully decorated with potted plants and pink roses. Refreshments were served to the guests. The many beautiful presents which the Reverend Father received showed the esteem and affection in which he is held. At 7 in the evening the Park City Military band attended in a body and rendered many excellent selections. Many hundreds of people called during the reception hours and offered their hearty congratulations to the worthy man. Nine priests from other parishes assisted in the services. Mr. and Mrs. John McGorley and daughter, Mrs. M. J. McGilly, have left the Park for a several months' visit to Europe. They will tour all the noted large cities on the continent before their return. Mr. and Mrs. William Doidge sail from Liverpool on Tuesday. They will spend some time in New York and arrive in Park City about July 10. Montague Allen arrived in the Park from Princeton college Friday morning. Mrs. William Staley and family left Saturday for a month's visit with friends in Salt Lake and Ogden. Mr. and Mrs. James Ivers, Mrs. James Flinn, James Ivers, Jr., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Welsh. They came to the Park to attend the silver jubilee of Rev. Father Galligan. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Buck arrived in the Park Saturday evening, after an extended visit in Denver. Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Davidson came home this evening from a very pleasant trip to Salt Lake City and Ogden. Miss Anna Boulton of Bountiful spent several days here this week, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fraser. Miss Kate Allen arrived in the Park from Ferry Hall Friday morning. She will spend her vacation with her mother at North Park. Mrs. Frank McLaughlin returned Monday morning from a pleasant trip to Salt Lake. She was accompanied by her two daughters. Misses Eva Lambert and Tessie Lambert left Wednesday for the reservation, where they will spend part of their vacation. Mr. Arthur Welter arrived in the Park Monday, after a pleasant visit with his sister in Salt Lake. Miss Edith Coombs went to Minneapolis Sunday morning, where she will spend the summer months. Mrs. J. Cross and Miss Nina Cross arrived in the Park Tuesday morning. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith and are on their way back to Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Neale and Miss Lillie Neale left Monday for a ten days' visit with friends in Salt Lake. George Frankel accompanied his uncle, Mr. Rosenbaum, back to Salt Lake, where he will visit several days. Mrs. E. Beggs went to Salt Lake Friday afternoon. She will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Lockhart. Mrs. G. W. Robinson has gone to Minneapolis, where she will visit with her parents during the summer months.
